

Bernice Toh Jiayi was a student of Greenridge Secondary School from 2020 to 2023. She sat for the Singapore-Cambridge GCE N-Level Examination in 2023.

Bernice is a student who exhibits perseverance in both her academic and co-curricular pursuits. When faced with setbacks or failures, she demonstrates resilience by not giving up. Rather than letting challenges deter her, she consistently learns from her mistakes, bouncing back from adversity. Bernice views challenges and setbacks as invaluable opportunities for growth and improvement, reflecting a positive attitude and a growth mindset. Her optimistic outlook enables her to tackle challenges with determination, relying on hard work and perseverance to overcome obstacles.

Being a responsible student, Bernice consistently demonstrates a high level of accountability and dedication in work. She has good organisational skills as she manages her time effectively, keeping track of deadlines and maintaining a good system for her various assignments, in both her studies and co-curricular activities. She also exhibits self-discipline in her approach towards learning. She is able to stay focused on her studies, resist distractions and consistently strive towards her goals without the need for constant supervision.

Bernice possesses strong leadership skills. She displayed her competency as a leader in her role as a Cadet Leader in the National Police Cadet Corps (NPCC) where she helped to organise the unit's resources and coordinate its camp events. She also identified areas for improvement and encouraged her fellow cadets to work towards excellence. Being a Cadet Leader also allowed her to enhance her decision-making and communication skills, essential attributes which will contribute to her success in future team environments. Bernice's dedicated efforts culminated in her unit earning the Unit Overall Proficiency Gold Award in 2022 and 2023.

Compassionate by nature, Bernice actively exhibits empathy for the community through her participation in various Values in Action projects. In 2020, she collaborated with classmates to create a video for the elderly. The group recreated the NDP parade segment and added Chinese subtitles to enhance their comprehension of the parade and allowed them to feel included in the National Day celebratory mood. The following year, through another impactful video project, Bernice and her peers expressed their gratitude to bus captains working in Bukit Panjang Interchange. In both 2022 and 2023, she utilised social media platforms and video production to raise awareness about disabilities and promote racial harmony. These experiences underline her unwavering commitment to community service, illustrating her dedication towards enhancing the well-being of others.

Bernice stands out as an exceptional student who is goal-oriented. She exhibits a tenacity in her approach towards
